Head Teacher: Rachel Wilkes

It is with sadness we say goodbye to Miss Dalton. She is leaving the school at half term and moving to Spain with her family. She will be really missed by all staff and her children. We wish her bon voyage and good luck for the future.

The school are working with the FareShare charity to be able to provide food parcels for our families. Food is donated by local supermarkets and will be different products each week. The bags will be given out on a Friday afternoon at 3pm from the KS1 playground., for £1.

Please can we remind all children and parents to be respectful and polite when talking to members of staff. There have been a recent number of incidents where staff have been shouted and sworn at, this is not acceptable.

The school sadly is still suffering with lots of vandalism, even though the fence has been heightened and the CCTV upgraded. We would love to update our premises further but are unable due to the continual expense of damage caused by vandals. If you see anyone on school property outside of school hours, please call the police on 101.

Well done to Mrs Stephenson who won a competition for our school to work with one of the artists in residence at the Ferens Art gallery. This led to our pupils being invited back, with Mrs Stephenson, to meet Prince Charles and the Duchess of Cornwall. It was lovely to see them in the Hull Daily Mail and on Radio Humberside. A great day for Clifton!

Well done to our sporting teams who have represented the school this half term in Boccia, Goal ball, football, basketball and netball tournaments. The children were great ambassadors for the school with comments on their impeccable behaviour and attitude.

This week Mrs Melia and Mr Coulson are in Freetown, Sierra Leone teaching in our partner school. The visit has been organised and paid for by The British Council. The children have been making story sacks of traditional tales to share with the children in Africa. We will tell you all about their visit when they return.

As a reward for 100% attendance, 30 children will have the chance of spending the day at KC stadium. Attendance and being on-time, is of vital importance to your child's education. The school provides a FREE breakfast club which starts at 8.00am. If parents are struggling with attendance, please call Miss Pollendine, the attendance officer, for advice.

Parents' Evening is the first Wednesday after half term. Letters have already gone out. Please send the slip back for an appointment. It would be lovely to see everyone there.

Finally, have a great half term and the children are back on Monday 27th February.
